Allowable Subject Matter

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The primary reason for the allowance of claim 1 is the limitation of operating the ink duct roller in conjunction with the metering device for liquefying the printing ink, holding removal of the printing ink from the ink duct roller by the further roller in a suppressed state while simultaneously rotating the ink duct roller at a conditioning rotational speed and simultaneously controlling the metering device pursuant to a conditioning profile for only partially opening the metering device at least from time to time, in combination with the other claimed steps.

The primary reason for the allowance of claim 9 is the limitation of an ink duct roller, a metering device, an electronic control device being programmed for activating the inking unit for performing a method including operating the ink duct roller in conjunction with said metering device for liquefying the printing ink, holding removal of the printing ink from the ink duct roller by the further roller in a suppressed state while simultaneously rotating the ink duct roller at a conditioning rotational speed and simultaneously controlling the metering device pursuant to a conditioning profile for only partially opening the metering device at least from time to time, in combination with the other claimed structure.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
